

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath the following:

Our hearts and memories to the two dearest to our class, Sister Ann Thomas and Sister Agnes Louise.

Dotti Andrews hesitantly wills her curly locks to Jane Bintz. Dick Cocherl hands down his sixth period break to Susan Thaw and Barb Byrnes. Pete Haanen leaves his November 15 vacation to John Barkley. Rhett Paulus donates his track cleets to Greg Ring. Olieva Jones bestows her engagement ring on Karen Walker. Marcia Richardson bequeaths her speeding shorthand ability to Janet Britz and Cathy Butt.

Rita Nicolosi wills her permanent position on the homecoming court to some lucky Junior girl. Noreen Geyer wills her biceps to Steve Kirby. Brenda Howman endows her mysterious powers over sailors to Norma Haley. Earl Lord wills his hub-caps to "Duke" Vanderkallen. Mary Agnes Truka leaves her talent for getting kicked out of class to Kathy McDonald. Marilyn Strawser wills her ability to chew five packs of gum at one time to Mary Richardson. John Watters leaves his friendly friendship with Miss Noll to Tom Scharf. Don (Tiny) Seaton relinquishes his strong arm to Dick New. Ed Vogel endows part of his height on Dan Caplin so he can be seen.

Diann Deffenbaugh gladly bestows her ability to fall out of desks to Jean Roseberry. Kay Fabian wills her nurses cap and rubber gloves to Linda Wooley. Barb Shigley passes on her New Year's Eve curfew to Peggy McLaughlin. Carla Barkley conveys her knuckle-cracking ability and her motorcycle memories to Michele Whelan.

Mike Moore wills his knowledge of world affairs to Tim Sens. Carol Tressler transfers her giddiness to Susan Orthmeyer and Linda Candell. John Rawlins leaves his ability to MOOCH to Tom Lavendar.

Stoney Crane leaves his "hair care" secrets to Jackie Howman. Roger Lawrence wills his memories of retreat to Ned Peacock. John "BeBe" Brady assures us his dedication to football is to be transferred to Tim Byrnes. Dan Cornelly and Dick Krautz leave their love for the missions to John Maxwell. John Eddy sleepily bequeaths his ability to stay awake to Steve Cusick. Jay Shoup wills his pleasant outlook of life to Joe Stanko. Dave Byrnes donates his love of the senior year to Ron Hostettler. Kevin Castner gives his yearly trips to the state science fair to Ann Devine. Kevin Clary wills his "ego sum" attitude to John Lord. Jim Chill presents his "souvenior" from the Key Club Convention very slowly to Chris Cameron. "Ski" wills his long name to Carolyn Lieb.

John Shockey entrusts his "attentive ear" in religion class to Jeanene Jesionek. Jerry Roes wills his performance in the faculty game to Dan Tuttle and Ken Thome. Mike Greenland confers his ability to snap the "Mt. Gilead Special" to Bob Litzenburg. Cherryl Berridge wills her "special mirror" to Mary Rubeck. Bill Caruso wills his "expert sharpshooter" awards and stuffed dove to Charley Morbitt. Roseanne DeFranks wills her French Accent to Tilly Dietrick. Jan O'Dea entrusts her 20 pounds of soap from St. Theresa's with Jack Litzenburg. Carol Thornberry wills her fair skin to Phil Sheeche. Kevin Everly gives his spring fever and fishing pole to Mike Scharf. George Murphy wills his Latin book to Steve Myers. Maryann Wissler passes down her tolerance of two angelic voices always in Church, to Mary McKinney and Kathy Kelleher for their remaining choir days. Helen LaValley leaves her championship intermural basketball techniques to Barb Deiner. Jim Nicolosi reluctantly leaves his brother Pat to Karen Schuler and his janitor's broom to Mary Fath. Ray Moloney gladly gives his next door neighbor to Mary Jo Besinger. Judi Schelb leaves her investment in Clairol Products, Inc. to Hank Rugula. Greg Gibb wills his farm equipment to cousin Ann.

No senior has anything to will to Peggy Daugherty because she has already proclaimed herself perfect. Stephanie Ochs relinquishes her campatibility to Nancy Paulus. Vicki Owens leaves her teasing comb to Rosie Rayner. Mike Grady leaves his fond memories of Physics class to Joe Holsinger and Jim Rollins. Jackie Chamberlain wills her tonsels to Dorlene Davis. Jim Caruso wills his "brown nose" to Mike Piacentino. Mike Kingsley transmits his ability for "reaping the scholastic profits of others" (ahem) to Mike Fessenmeyer. Jim Sansotta wills his great capacity for strong beverage to Tom McGannan. Rick Nicolosi leaves his collection of root beer mugs to Jim Rawlins. Tom Tuttle bequeaths his sports almanac to Dennis Heisler. Mary Kay Tanner leaves her love of Spanish class to Pam Nicolosi. Dee Hanley leaver her cheerleading outfit to Jane Cornelly.

Jerry Nicolosi cheerfully presents his senior track medals to Dick Shockey. Mike Schelb leaves his dog, who always keeps biting him to Tom Davis. Marilyn Murphy wills her ability to tell jokes to Mary Lou Elliot. Patty Myers surrenders her love sonnets to Lynn James. Mo forgoes his ability to be the Titus (tightest) senior to for his "pal" Tim Fabian. Joe Walker renders his homeroom to John Klise. John Jesionek wills his physique to Dan Paulus. Cathy Augenstein yields her HECTOR'ic times to Cindy Wagner. Jean Granger wills her WASHBURNED hands to Sharon and Karen Izzi. Jan Granger sacrificed her collection of coffin catalogues and piano concertos to Steve Cameron and Bob Taylor. Since Mike Greenland has led all to believe that he has everything, he also wills his red hair to Diane Angus. Bob Simmons bequeaths his mastery of the pinball machine to Dan Solomon.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seal this document the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine-hundred and sixty-five.
